LITTLE MARIE HEATH

Ennice Goodrich Adelaide Plunkett in Fact

A Splendid Array of First Class Talent in the Great Play For Mother's Sake

A pleasant surprise is in store for the patrons of the Grand Opera House when the new rural drama "For Mother's Sake," a story of New England life, will be presented. The management will carry the entire production, using their own car, which will contain everything used in the way of scenery, furniture, mechanical and electrical effects required for the four acts. The cast is composed of artists well known in the profession, every man, woman and child engaged is a finished actor, which will enable the company to give one of the most finished and complete performances offered this season in the way of rural drama. Little Marie Heath will head the company, assisted by Ennice Goodrich Adelaide Plunkett, Clara Beyers, Dolly Davenport, Theodore Pottle, Virginia McKinley, "The McKinley Twins," Charles Plunkett, J. Edwin Brown, Jos. Schaefer, Jr., Jos. W. Walsh, Pete Raymond, Edwin Roy, Geo. W. Lyons, Alexander Lawrence and Wm. Pottle, Jr. The action flows so smoothly in the hands of these clever artists that it is only the fall of the curtain that reminds us that it is the acting. "For Mother's Sake" is out of the usual run of plays, the settings the costumes, the action, the whole atmosphere being natural and true. The play in on entirely new lines and the authors, Carrie Ashley-Clark, has held a distinguished place as an actress, and from years of experience knows what the public admires most in the way of rural drama.

A Written Guarantee.
"For Mother's Sake" is announced as the next attraction at the Grand Opera House and the date is next Friday (New Year's) night. The manager of the company, Mr. W. R. Rusco, is so sure that the company will please the Salem patrons that he has given a written guarantee. His letter is as follows:
"I have such faith in Marie Heath in 'For Mother's Sake' that we do not want a single penny until after the performance, and you can guarantee the attraction and tell the people that they can have their money refunded after the show if they are not perfectly satisfied with the performance."
"For Mother's Sake" is not a melodrama, but is more like 'Down East' or 'Shore Acres.' Not a murder nor a pistol shot in the whole play."
Seats will be on sale at the box office at 9 o'clock Friday morning. The curtain will rise at 8:15.

SOME MODERN UTOPIAS.
Fortunate Countries Where People Ought to Be Very Good.
(Golden Penny.)
Denmark claims that there is not a single person in her domain who cannot read and write. On the northeast coast of New Guinea, the island of Kutaba, surrounded by a wall of coral 300 feet high on one side and from 50 to 100 feet on the other side maintains thirteen villages of natives, to whom war, crime and poverty have been unknown since the beginning of their traditions. The most peaceful and comfortable community in Europe is the commune of the canton of Vaud, in Switzerland. Nearly every one is well off, and there are no paupers.
Finland is a realm whose inhabitants are remarkable for their inviolate integrity. There are no banks and no safe deposit, for no such security is essential. You may leave your luggage anywhere for any length of time and be quite sure of finding it untouched on your return, and your purse full of money would be just as secure under similar circumstances. The Finns place their money and valuables in holes in the ground and cover them with a big leaf. Such treasure is sacredly respected by all who pass it, but, in the rare event of a man wishing to borrow of his neighbor during his absence, he will take only the smallest sum he requires, and place a message in the hole telling of his urgent need and promising to repay the amount on a specified date. And he will invariably keep his word, for the Finn is inviolable in his independence.
Agneta Park, near Delft, in Holland, is another Utopian example. A tract of ten acres has upon it 150 houses, each with its little garden and with certain common buildings and common grounds. The houses are occupied by the employees of a great distilling company, who form a corporation which owns the park. Each member owns shares in the corporation, and pays rent for his house. The surplus, after all expenses have been paid, comes back to him as a dividend. If he wishes to go away, or if he dies, his shares are bought up by the corporation and sold to the man who takes his place.

Climatic Cures.
The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, and the rich patient, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular course of German Syrup. Free expectation in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer clime you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those who use German Syrup. Trial bottle, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists. At Dr. Stone's drug stores.
The Direct Legislation League of Oregon is preparing a bill to be submitted to the people, through the initiative, providing for direct primary nominations of all officers.
